| Picture | Object # | Artist/Maker | Object Name | Title |
|---------|---------------|-------------------------|--------------|---------------------------------------|
| | 1930.143.171 | Lorrain, Claude | oil painting | The Embarkation of the Queen of Sheba |
| | 1990.043.0001 | Monet, Claude | oil painting | The Cliffs at Etretat |
| | 1990.045.0001 | Supplee, John __painter | oil painting | The Little Fountain, Drakelow |

The bottom section of the interface shows a detailed view for the record 'The Cliffs at Etretat' (Object # 1990.043.0001). It includes fields for Object #, Component Parts, Accession Number, Artwork Classif (PAINTING), Category (On View), Object Name (oil painting), Artist/Maker (Monet, Claude), Artist Dates (1840-1926), Artist Nationality (French), Title (The Cliffs at Etretat), Medium-Tech (OIL ON CANVAS), Obj Date (1887), Place Made (French __FRANCE __Etretat), Location (Rotunda Gallery), and Record Status (Incomplete). A 'Slide Show' window on the right displays a large image of the painting 'The Cliffs at Etretat'.
